The Planet Home Lending Honorary Scholarship Awarded to North Alabama Resident

MERIDEN, Conn., September 14, 2021 – Planet Home Lending, LLC, a national mortgage lender and servicer, recently endowed a scholarship through the Army Scholarship Foundation. The nonprofit organization provides college scholarships to children of current and former members of the U.S. Army and spouses of currently serving soldiers. Through this commitment, The Planet Home Lending Honorary Scholarship was awarded to Alyse Hamren of Owens Cross Roads, Ala.

“Planet Home Lending is proud to support student applicants, such as Alyse Hamren, in their effort to achieve their goals of higher education,” said Michael Dubeck, CEO and President of Planet Financial Group, LLC, parent company of Planet Home Lending. “We are honored to partner with the Army Scholarship Foundation as part of our Planet with a Purpose platform and look forward to continuing to assist relatives of our nation’s veterans and those who currently serve.”

Planet Home Lending’s partnership with the Army Scholarship Foundation is a part of the company’s larger Planet with a Purpose initiative. The Planet with a Purpose program also funds the National Forest Foundation’s tree-planting mission and the Farmlink Project’s mission to connect farmers with surplus food to the nation’s food banks.

Hamren is the daughter of Sgt. 1st Class and Mrs. William Hamren and is a freshman at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB). This scholarship will support her plans to major in digital forensics.
