Mortgage Industry Veteran Kris Kehl Joins Planet to Expand California Presence

MERIDEN, Conn. – Jan. 27, 2026 – Planet Home Lending, a national mortgage lender and servicer, continues expanding its Western retail footprint with the addition of veteran mortgage loan originator Kris Kehl (NMLS #321079) as Senior Mortgage Loan Officer in California. With more than two decades of mortgage experience, Kehl's relationship-first approach based on accessibility, communication, and trust will be a strong asset to the company.

“Kris brings an exceptional ability to serve homebuyers and their real estate agents,” said Matt Payan, SVP National Production, Distributed Retail at Planet. “His depth of experience and commitment to helping borrowers find realistic paths to homeownership make him a great addition to our team.”

During his 22-year career, Kehl has gained expertise in a deep variety of home loans, including conventional, FHA, VA, USDA, and reverse mortgages, as well as the full array of non-QM loans, tailored for business owners and the business investor community.

“Affordability is a key concern for many of the homebuyers I’m working with in today’s market,” Kehl said. “I encourage first-time buyers to think about homeownership as a long-term wealth-building strategy. For many people, an entry-level or transitional home is a smart first step that builds equity and creates real opportunity over time.”

Kehl joins Planet at a time when the company continues to emphasize relationship-based lending and a servicing-retention model designed to support people throughout the homeownership life cycle.
